

ity of death in the electric chair in this State," he said, "to see the next Legislature pass a law permitting society to fix a life penalty, and that this reform will succeed in doing away with capital punishment."

Warden Riley did not report that he was on the verge of a nervous breakdown owing to his experience with the gunmen.

Governor Glynn was greatly interested in the report of the warden, but declined to make any comment on the case.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy expressed the opinion that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.

Done to Ald Becker.

New York, April 13.—District Attorney Whitman is convinced that the name of Harry Vallon was mentioned in the client's confession in order to help Police Lieutenant Charles Becker when he was being kept secret. It is admitted at the district attorney's office that Vallon is absent from the city, but Mr. Whitman's sleuths prefer to believe that he has been taken up whenever he is needed.

This death-house confinement furnishes the interpretation of the conspiracy to kill Herman Rosenthal as related by Jack Rose. I cannot see how the gunman's statement can be of value in the forthcoming trial of Charles Becker. As evidence it is not available, and it is a story of the killing told by a man who admits he was not present.

Whitman announced to-night he would go before Judge Goff on Wednesday and ask that the second trial of Becker be set for the first week in May.

Armed Guards at Mansion.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Albany, N. Y., April 13.—Armed guards to-night patrol the grounds of the executive mansion. Every visitor who approaches is held up and forced to show his identification card before he is permitted to approach the house.

The reason for this is the fact that during the past few days Governor Gillett has received numerous communications threatening that if the gunmen were permitted to do their friends would avenge them.

The letters have been kept from the Governor by his secretaries, and he does not know of the presence of the gunmen.

Bodies Taken to New York.

New York, April 13.—The bodies of the four gunmen executed in Sing Sing prison to-day were brought back to the city. They were buried in Lewis Cemetery, where they were immediately buried in a Long Island cemetery. Emotional thousands of the East Side fell behind this cortège and followed it to the last resting place. Before he was permitted to approach the house.

The reason for this is the fact that during the past few days Governor Gillett has received numerous communications threatening that if the gunmen were permitted to do their friends would avenge them.

The letters have been kept from the Governor by his secretaries, and he does not know of the presence of the gunmen.

GROVE PARK INN

Sunset Mountain, Asheville, N. C.

Absolutely Fireproof, Open All the Year

An unobstructed lawn—over five feet thick, of highest mountain east. Two hundred rooms supplied exclusively by Gillett Brothers on estate of George W. Vanderbilt.

Swimming pool, tennis courts, golf course, etc.

No mosquitoes. Always cool enough for white rats and literature.

Smithfield Hams

Sunset Mountain, Asheville, N. C.

JOY ON WHITE HOUSE LAWN

Children of Capital Meet for Annual Egg-Rolling.

Washington, April 13.—President Wilson returned here early to-day from White Sulphur Spring, W. Va., and went to the White House for breakfast with the members of the Cabinet.

Miss Eleanor Wilson, and Francis B. Sayre, the President's son-in-law, Mrs. Sayre and Miss Margaret Wilson, remained at the Springs with Mr. Wilson, and they stay for another week. The President probably will again join them on Friday.

The President was host to-day to the children of the Capital at their annual egg-rolling, and on the White House grounds.

The President and members of the Cabinet planned either to view the children at play from the south portico of the White House or to go into the throng and see the fun at close range.

Ideal weather favored the little guests, and thousands of them gathered on the south lawn of the White House grounds.

The admissions were restricted to children and accompanying parents, guardians or nurses, with the result that children were not admitted. Thousands of grown-ups, however, watched the frolic from nearby.

Most of the children laden with baskets filled with the various colored eggs were on hand early to-day waiting to open. Among the children from the various Washington members participating were Sally and John Adoo children of the Secretary of the Treasury; the seven youngsters of Senator Tumulty; John Green, grandson of Senator T. C. Green; Elizabeth Howe Wilson and her sister, Vice Wilson, both daughters of the Secretary of Labor; Ned and Nancy Lane, children of the Secretary of the Interior, and David Houston, son of the Secretary of Agriculture.

COPPER STRIKE ENDS

Miners, in Referendum Vote, Decide to Return to Work.

Mountaineer, Mich., April 13.—The strike of the copper miners in upper Michigan to the end to-day as a result of a referendum vote to-morrow among the members of the Western Federation of Miners. The strike had been in effect since last July, and the miners voted to return to work, the miners demanding higher wages and working conditions and recognition of the federation.

It was voted to return to work.

Proposed to Erect Memorial to Thomas Jefferson at Virginia Birthplace.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Washington, April 13.—The placing of a proper and suitable tablet or monument to mark privately the birthplace of Thomas Jefferson at Old Shadwell, in Virginia, is provided for in a joint resolution introduced in the House of Representatives to-day, the 150th anniversary of his birth, by Congressman Frank Clark, chairman of the House Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds. The placing of this tablet to mark Jefferson's birthplace is in part attributable to Mrs. Martin W. Littleton, who has so persistently urged the purchase of Monticello, the Thomas Jefferson's home, by the Federal government.

The resolution contemplates the creation of a commission composed of the President of the United States, the Speaker of the House, and the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, to examine plans and designs and select a suitable plan or design to suggest to Congress for adoption. Five thousand dollars is appropriated for the use of the commission.

G. H. M.

DEBT CASE NOT REACHED

Crowded Calendar Forces It Over Until Tomorrow.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Washington, D. C., April 13.—The Virginia-West Virginia debt case, which was on the calendar of the Supreme Court to-day for a hearing, was not legally before the court. The crowded condition of the calendar, when court was opened at noon, it was found that there were enough cases to carry over to-day, and to-morrow, and possibly even to Wednesday.

The court adjourned until Wednesday.

G. H. M.

BOY IS UNDER ARREST

He Is Held for Theft of Fortune in Jewels.

Hartford, Conn., April 13.—Lester Dean, eight years old, a boy claimed to come from a distinguished English family, is under arrest charged with stealing $10,000 worth of jewelry from a safe here on March 21. He is also accused of having committed other robberies and thefts during the strike, but the report has not been formulated.

To Cure a Cold in One Day

Take LAXATIVE RHOMO QUININE Tablets. Retailers refund money if it fails you. E. W. GROVES' signature is on each box. $2.50.

Paul N. Friedlaender

Eastern and Southern Districts

New York, N. Y.

BURNISHING

the Faucets

No hard rubbing.

Just Polish lightly

for a beautiful lustre.

BURNISHING

Your Auto Lamps

Best Polish for Hotels, Saloons,

Restaurants and the Home. Try a can

to-day.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy ex-

plained that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy ex-

plained that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy ex-

plained that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy ex-

plained that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy ex-

plained that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy ex-

plained that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy ex-

plained that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy ex-

plained that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy ex-

plained that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy ex-

plained that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy ex-

plained that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy ex-

plained that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy ex-

plained that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy ex-

plained that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy ex-

plained that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy ex-

plained that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy ex-

plained that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy ex-

plained that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy ex-

plained that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy ex-

plained that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy ex-

plained that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.

Both Mr. Riley and Mr. Clancy ex-

plained that nothing contained in Captain's statement would have any effect on the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Clancy said that the statements made by the defense, particularly those of the condemned man had pleaded for the truth. The warden added that he had no desire to make the statement of legal record, and therefore did not take up Frank's words down in writing and had not placed him under oath.